

STUDENT/GROUP PROJECTS

The following organizations have projects that would be appropriate for Senior Projects or small groups:

Junior Achievement

Senior high school students and adults are needed to help teach J.A. classes in elementary schools. Great project for students interested in career in education!

A second project is to organize a team for the J.A. Bowl-A-Thon fundraiser.

Contact: Dawn Berezney at 724-772-5900, Ext. 118 or e-mail: dberezney@jwesternpa.org

UPMC Passavant, Cranberry Campus

The Emergency Department is in need of coloring books, crayons and books for activity bags as a distraction for pediatric patients.

Contact: Diane Gloor at 724-772-5815 or e-mail: gloordc@ph.upmc.edu

American Heart Association

The local AHA chapter is looking for help with their annual Beaver-Butler Heart Ball. Volunteers can solicit prizes from area businesses and/or volunteer the evening of the event. The Heart Ball will be held on Saturday, March 7 at Four Points Sheraton in Cranberry.

Contact: Barbara Roth at 724-453-1004 or e-mail: barbara.roth@heart.org

IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance

The tax preparation service runs from February 1- April 15. General office assistance is needed during the tax preparation season.

Contact: Michael Berman at 724-776-4343 or e-mail: mberman@fyi.net

UPMC Cranberry Place

Existing flower planters collapsed and need to be rebuilt. Great project for corporate or older scouting groups!

Family Resource Center

Call about a number of opportunities with the grounds department. Good fit for senior projects that address environmental issues or those that match the mission of Family Resources (families at risk, lack of appropriate role models, etc.).

Contact: Terry Wiles at 724-776-2121 or e-mail: twile@familyresourcesofpa.org

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Butler County

This organization is looking for help contacting area businesses for prizes for the annual Bowl-for-Kids Sake fundraiser on April 19. This project could be a good fit for senior projects on mentoring or children at risk.

Contact: Corrine Coulson at 724-287-4733 or e-mail: ccoulson@bcfymca.org

Helping Paws, Inc.

Attention Animal lovers! This small nonprofit would love a student organized dog/cat food drive.

Contact: Mary Ann Engles at 724-368-2044 (evenings) or e-mail: maryann2@zoominternet.net

Venture Club of North Pittsburgh

Help! We need a website... students with web design experience or those interested in a career in design will be considered.

Contact: Mary Alice Olson at 724-940-1730
e-mail: mao528@aol.com

The Miracle League of Southwestern Pa.

This non-profit manages the new handicap-accessible baseball field and the league schedule. Groups can support the Miracle

Contact: Cassie Wolf at 724-772-5382
e-mail: wolfcm@upmc.edu

League by sponsoring a fundraiser (large or small) to offset cost of operating the league.

Contact: Mike Sherry at 724-831-7392
e-mail: msherry@MLSWPA.org